ACTING THROUGH SONG

---

An Alamance Childrens Theatre Workshop

---

Pauper Performance Troupe

---

The Pauper Performance Troupe is the outreach initiative of the UNC Pauper Players, UNC's premiere musical theatre group. The Troupe's mission is to make musical theatre accessible to the community by providing workshops and performances to schools, the UNC Children's Hospital, retirement homes, and various other venues/ people in the community.

Things to bring with you:

---

- ◆ Water bottle
- ◆ Snack
- ◆ Comfortable clothes/shoes

Advanced registration is strongly encouraged as space is limited!

You may pay at the door but open spaces are not guaranteed.

Alamance Children's Theatre is thrilled to bring ACT Alumna Mikaela Mock and the Pauper Performance Troupe to our community for this amazing workshop opportunity!

The focus of this workshop is to help new and seasoned actors ages 8 - 18 make their character shine throughout the musical portion of a performance. Please have each actor bring a small portion of a song - about a minute/verse plus the chorus - to work on individually/in small groups in master class format. Actors will also learn some choreography, so wear comfortable clothes and shoes to dance in!

There will be a performance for the parents to showcase what your actors have learned, so please plan to arrive at 11:45 so you don't miss out!

DATE: March 30, 2019

TIME: 9 am - 12 pm

*doors open at 8:45 am for drop off

*parents arrive at 11:45 for performance

Location: Hawfield's Presbyterian Church, 2115 NC-119, Mebane, NC 27302

Cost: $10 per participant
